OPENING

DIVERSE DIRECTIONS

“You are never given a wish without also being given the power to make it come true.”

HERE COMES THE BRIDE

The future holds a variety of things for this year's senior class. Jan Montgomery, Ginny Neighbors, and Vicki Miller look through bridal books to make those final plans for their upcoming weddings. These three will not only be newlyweds in the fall; Vicki and Ginny will both be teaching, and Jan will be working with one of the "Big Six" accounting firms, Ernst & Young.

DOCTORS TO BE

Hours in the chemistry lab have paid off for Nirav Vora and Scott McClellan as each have been accepted to Medical School. Nirav will be attending UAB Medical School and Scott will be at the University of Washington Medical School.

STUDENT LIFE

“Life is currently described in one of four ways: a journey, a battle, a pilgrimage, or a race. Select your own metaphors, but the necessity of finishing is all the same. For if life is a journey, it must be completed. If life is a battle, it must be finished. If life is a pilgrimage, it must be concluded. And if life is a race, it must be won.”

NEW ADDITIONS

From renovations to additions, the Hilltop has become a full-time construction site.

NORTON

Herb Sklenar, Dudley Long, and Corinne Norton happily break ground for the new student center.

ROAD BLOCK

Soccer player Binni Schram ignores the bulldozer blocking the way as he heads back to his dorm.

BREAK-ING GROUND

MAKING WAY

Utilities lines are being laid in preparation for the new fitness and campus centers.

PARKING

How many times do you drive around the dorm circle looking for a parking space? Matt Stevenson and Chad Post are happy to see that additional parking will finally be added behind Olin.

RECREATION CENTER

Larry D. Striplin

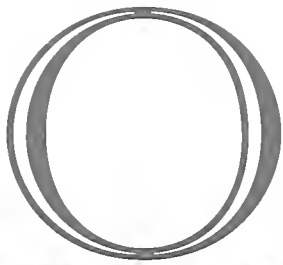

PUBLICITY
Dr. Berte relates BSC's expansion plans to the public.

DETOUR
Gene Murphy avoids the detour sign as he tries to get to class on time.

DIRT
The improvements have left our campus looking like a regular construction site.

ON MY OWN

Moving-In is a student's first step toward independence

HEADSTART

Looking for answers to those first day questions, Carroll Lane Christopher flips through the RHA manual.

ANOTHER TRIP

With a smile on his face and both hands full, Triangle Club member Rett Blake makes yet another trip to Maggie D.

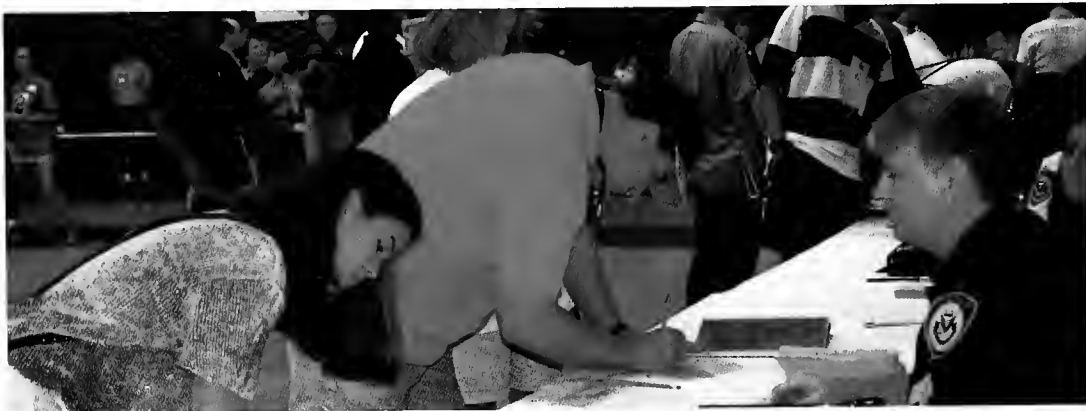

FIRST DAY

With clothes in hand and many more loads to follow, Amit Patel searches for his new room on the first floor of Cullen Daniels.

Move-In Day is long and stressful as hundreds of new students pour onto the dorm quad with mixed emotions. All photos by Mary Catherine Richardson.

DECALS

There are many steps in the move-in day process, one being the stop at the security table for your parking decal. Angie Wade and John Morris have no idea that this five dollar purchase guarantees them nothing more than a place on fraternity row.

THIS SIDE UP

Students Offering Support is another organization that helps out in the Move-In day process. S.O.S member Sherri Rott helps this dad with a heavy load.

A HELPING HAND
Triangle Club members make the Move-In day process much easier on freshmen as well as their parents. April Riggins helps out by carrying a load of hanging clothes.

DUET

After inhaling some helium, Reeves Woods and Emily Keiser sing along to one of their favorite tunes during RHA's "Goofy Games."

SUPPORT

Juniors Hope Deese and Carolyn Lewis take their S.O.S roles seriously, as they not only support the new students but also each other.

STARTING OUT

Students, both old and new, enjoy the excitement of Orientation Week

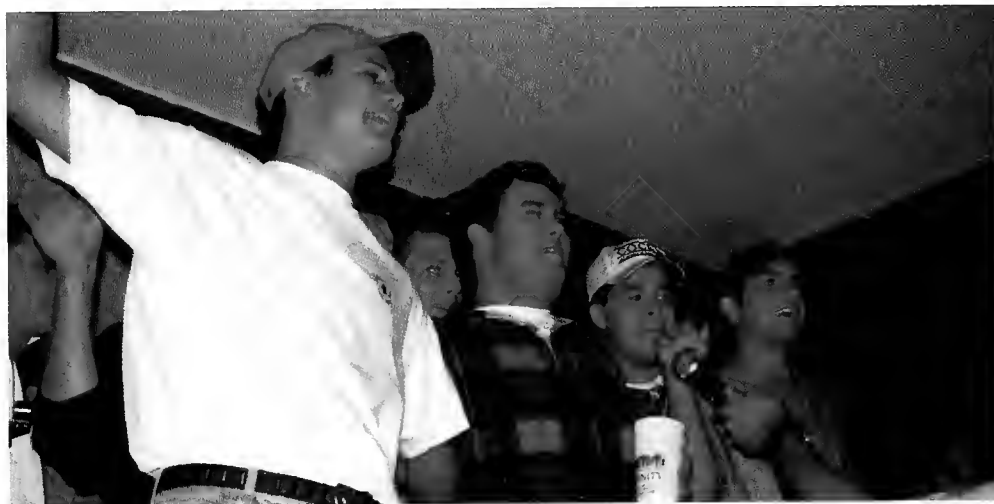

UP CLOSE

What better way to meet someone than to get all tangled up in a game of twister? Jennifer Joseph, a freshman from Birmingham, and Tom Franklin, a sophomore Resident Advisor from Texas, work together to stay on the colored dots at one of the many Orientation events.

All photos by Mary Catherine Richardson.

HARMONY

Enjoying a night of games and new friends, Rett Cooper, Shep Savage, John Morris, and Zack Litrell entertain the crowd by boldly undertaking the art of karaoke. The quartet won first place in the helium karaoke contest, a new addition to goofy games.

MACARENA

Not only can you find Sara Hoover in the counseling center, but she also can be found dancing among the S.O.S. members. Jeanna Henderson, Carey Crook, Katherine Penton, and James Bullard practice the Macarena so they can lead the incoming freshmen at the annual orientation squaredance.

WAY OF LIFE

From aerobics to weights, students make healthy living a priority

BICEPS

Maureen McAuliffe knows that soccer, a contact sport, requires not only endurance and focus, but also some serious muscle.

PING-PONG

Joel Adams shows off his sharp forehand as he plays a quick game of ping-pong.

MUSCLE UP

On the far corner of the academic quad is a tiny spot where many like to go for a good workout.

Students utilize the fitness facilities in the old gym on a regular basis in hopes of staying in shape throughout the year.

Working out is also a wonderful way to relieve the stress of class. Chad Bradford, often found in the weight room, is spotted by freshman

Lowery Rhodes.

All photos by Mary Catherine Richardson.

BREASTSTROKE

Whether it's hot or cold outside, if you feel like taking a dip in a pool, the old gym is the place to go. Mary Stowe Mareno enjoys the refreshing water and gets a workout at the same time.

STROLLIN'
When the weather is not fit for walking outside, Alice Bacon likes to exercise inside.

CALVES
One of BSC's athletic teams take over the gym on most afternoons. Basketball player Damian Gilbert works on his calf muscles, improving his jump for the slam dunk.

ABS
Freshman Maggie Jones uses the new Ab Roller, purchased by the SGA, in hopes of gaining the notorious "Abs of Steel."

AEROBICS
The SGA offers free aerobics classes to students three nights a week in the old gym. Although many students opt to join health clubs, Jennifer McQueen, LaKisha Cargill, and Ginny Neighbors love the idea of a free, accessible workout.

G OING BEYOND

Outreach Day - a time for sharing, growing and learning

FOLDING CLOTHES

Many organizations across campus participate in Outreach Day projects as a group. Jay Cochran, a freshman from Florence, spends his Saturday helping out at Southside Ministries with the rest of his pledge class.

CAUTION

Ben Bolton and John Wilson perfect their art skills by trimming this church's sign with a fresh coat of paint.

TEAMWORK

Habitat for Humanity is a popular project both on Outreach Day and throughout the year. Project Coordinators Jay Mitchell and Clay Ryan work together to build the wall frame of a house in the Ensley area.

STYLE

Not every Saturday morning do you find students up bright and early doing such things as mending fences, building houses, and bathing animals. All of these and more are a part of the Outreach Day activities. Junior Brooke Frederick spends her Saturday at the Humane Society. All photos by SVS.

GROUNDWORK

Working on the foundation for a new playground at a nearby elementary school, juniors Sarah Merritt and Lisa Newman join other members of Hilltop Christian Fellowship for a day of outreach and fun.

FOCUSED

Outreach Day combines a variety of projects in hopes of creating an enjoyable and fulfilling experience for all who participate. Nirav Vora uses his talents by helping spray wash a neighborhood home.

FROM THE HILL

Thousands of people gather to see the man from Capitol Hill

VOLUNTEERS

Student volunteer Cameron Cole lifts schoolchildren over a barricade so they can get a better view of the president.

LEADERSHIP

College president Dr. Neal Berte welcomes Bill Clinton to the Hilltop.

OVERFLOW

Expecting a crowd of no more than 5,000, secret service, college officials, and the President himself are shocked as thousands pour onto the academic quadrangle.

ONE NATION

Before the festivities began, Howell Heflin, Bill Clinton, Earl Hilliard, and Roger Bedford turn to salute the American flag as the crowd joins in singing the national anthem.

HONOR

On October 24, President Bill Clinton came to the Hilltop in honor of Howell Heflin. Heflin, an alumnae of BSC, represented Alabama well for three consecutive terms as a

United States

Senator.

Clinton and other state officials gathered to thank the Senator for his dedicated years of service. All photos by Mary

Catherine Richardson.

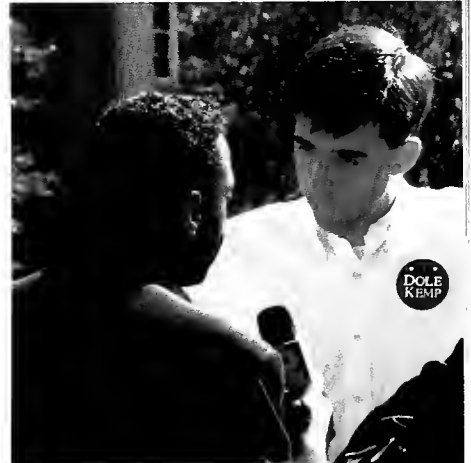

FACE TO FACE

After Clinton spoke to the crowd of 45,000, supporters push to the front in hopes of meeting the President. This dream comes true for BSC student Troy Covington.

AIRFORCE ONE

While hundreds of planes fly overhead a year at BSC, it is rare for a world leader to fly over the Hilltop.

LIVE

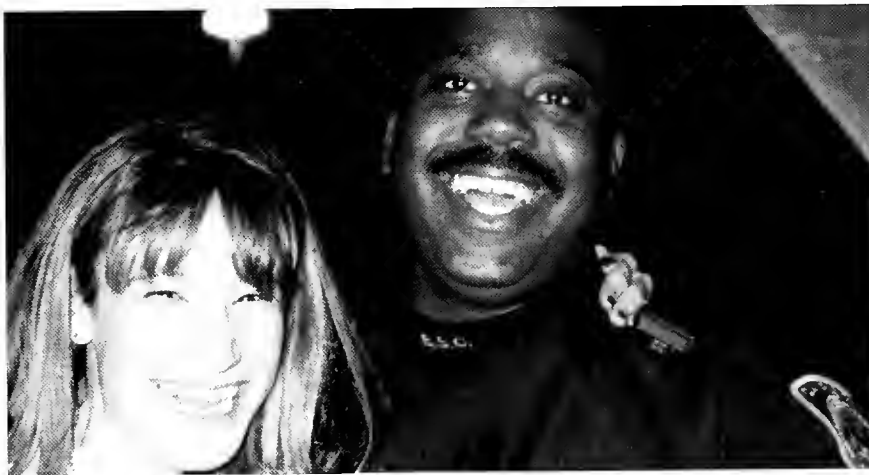

Not only Clinton fans attended the event; Jay Mitchell speaks out for the Republican candidate Bob Dole.

SECURITY

From fixing flats to unlocking doors, 4700 Security is your friend

RESCUE

When stranded on Arkadelphia Road, Hope Deese knew who to call. Sylvester was there in no time at all, for which Hope was extremely thankful.

TICKETS

How many times have you parked in the loading zone or a green faculty space and returned to your car only to find a yellow ticket attached to the windshield?

Don't take it out on security. The strict rules they follow are in the best interests of the students, even if the fines don't bring smiles to anyone's face.

All Photos by Mary

Catherine

Richardson.

THE WAVE

With or without a smile, every time you drive into campus you are almost guaranteed to get "the wave" from the officer on guard.

BICYCLES

If you are strolling along the sidewalk and a bicycle whizzes past you, don't be alarmed- it's probably security on their new bikes.

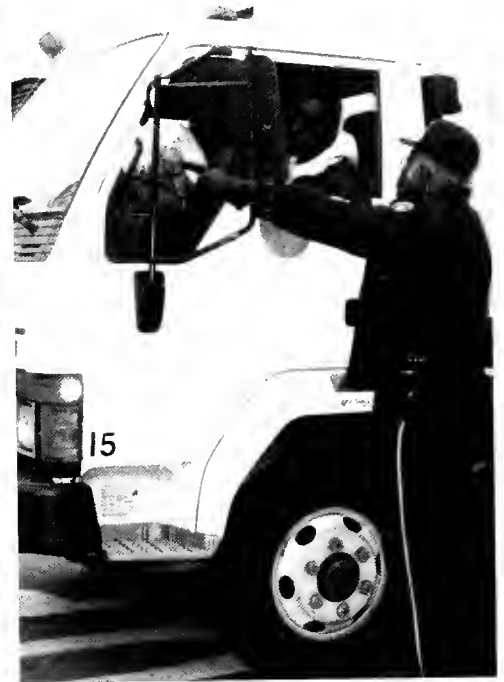

KEYS

Having a pass key to every door on campus, security often lets students in buildings after hours. Anoop Ranganath waits as security holds the door for Stacey Speigle.

DIRECTIONS

Before pointing visitors in the right direction, security takes down their name, license, and tag number. Security is always taking necessary precautions to keep the campus safe.

QUESTION

If you ever have a question or need assistance in any way, security is there. Bryan Tharp, a member of the men's soccer team, stops to ask Sylvester about the condition of the soccer field.

TRICK OR TREAT

Twenty-six different organizations participated in the Fall Festival on Halloween. These Alpha Chi Omegas pose with a group of their favorite trick or treaters.

SPOOKTACULAR

GO FISH

Members of Pi Beta Phi, Nicole Nabors and Cathy Harkins help make the Go Fish booth a success.

WILD THINGS

Clowns, Ghosts and Witches fill the Dorm Quad

SWEET REWARDS

Bobbing for apples is a favorite at all Halloween carnivals. This young child enjoys the booth sponsored by Theta Chi.

HOT AIR

Sigma Chi Reid Jackson adds to the Halloween carnival by helping out at his fraternity's booth.

BOO

The "Where the Wild Things Are" Fall Festival, sponsored by Panhellenic is a huge success with many sororities, fraternities, and other campus organizations participating. Dressed as a clown, Jennifer Emerson visits each booth in hopes of spreading the Halloween spirit to all.

All photos by Mary Catherine Richardson.

CREATE YOUR OWN BAG

The art department provided the glitter, markers, and glue for this booth. Joanna Leong, Natalie Beville, and Julie Polk help these children with their Halloween goody bags.

T EAMWORK

Coaches, fans, and athletes all come together in intramurals to make competing fun and exciting

C HAMPIONS

Any competition takes teamwork to be a success. With the cheers of the fans and the advice of the coaches, the players of Alpha Omicron Pi fight through many tough games to take first place in flag football.

T ACKLE

Although flag football does not involve actual tackling, many times players fall to the ground to fight for the flag.

B UMP, SET, SPIKE

Melanie Styers, Kelly O'Donnell, and Leslie Bibb anxiously await the serve from the opposing team.

COACH

In the fall, everyone gets excited about flag football, and the intramural field stays crowded with people cheering their team on to victory. But when winter comes, indoor sports such as volleyball fill the gym with athletes, and competitive spirits continue to flow. Then springtime brings everyone outside again with the softball teams in full effect.

Year-round, intramurals keep students active and provide the continued feeling of teamwork. Although Clark Calvert's sport is soccer, he enjoys coaching the Chi Omega's softball team, trying to teach Kim Page how to throw the curve ball.

All photos by Mary Catherine Richardson.

PLAN

Positioning your players is crucial in softball, and Sean Collins, Maggie Jones and Susan Wallace plan their strategy.

TOSS

Brad Johnson shows how important it is to loosen your arm up before playing softball as he prepares for the KA's victory.

HIT

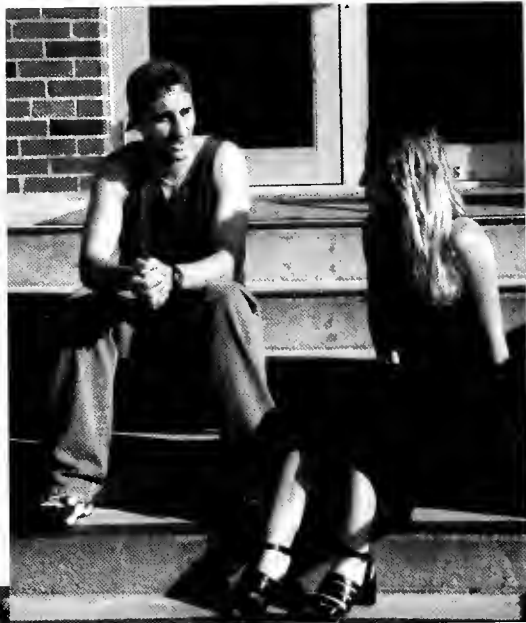

Keeping his eyes on the ball before and after the hit, junior Richie Thayer swings the bat like a pro to help the SAE's win the game.

LAZY DAYS

As spring approaches, students flock out of the dorms and onto the Quad

CHAT

Catching up on the week's events, Sari Ateek, from Jerusalem, and Kirsten Schultz enjoy the beautiful weather.

FRISBEE

After being accepted to medical school, senior Nirav Vora spends his free time throwing the frisbee on the Quad.

VOLLEY

On a warm afternoon people frequently gather on the Dorm Quad, engaging in a range of activities from studying to just spending time with friends. The sand volleyball court is usually a popular spot, as many teams wait around to get in on the competition. Freshmen Nick Nunnally and Cliff Fleming find that volleyball is a fun way to get a little exercise.

Photos by Mary Catherine Richardson and Marie Shunnarah.

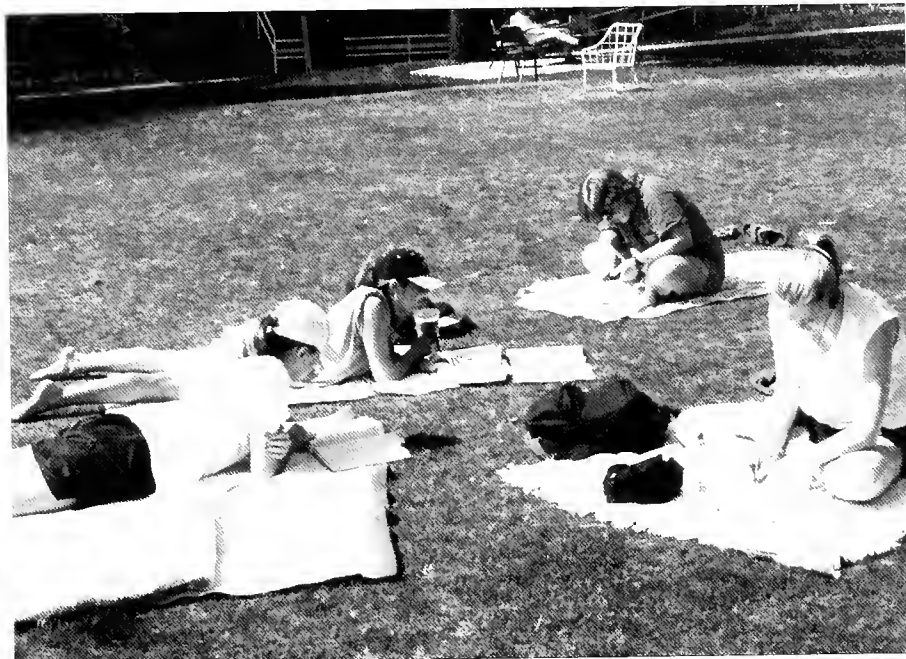

LAPTOP

Technology allows Susan Wallace to take her computer outside so that she can get work done while enjoying the warmth of a spring afternoon.

QUAD

Forming a quad of their own, Beth Thompson, Natalie Beville, Claire Evans, and Shannon Jeffries intently study.

SURVEY

Sophomore Carmen Wrenn finds the perfect quiet place on Andrew's Green to fill out her student survey.

LUNCH

After having lunch outside, Tobie Smith and Joy Henningsen remain seated and enjoy each other's company.

O N THE INSIDE

Although it begins as an empty room, it quickly becomes individual homes

COMMUNITY

Community rooms are a popular place in Margaret Daniel. These rooms give the girls a place to talk, watch T.V., study and even cook. Michelle Falls flips through a magazine while she waits for Jennifer Imler to cook pasta for dinner. Pasta is a dorm favorite since it's fast, easy, and delicious.

COMFORT

Although it may not be exactly like your room at home, students quickly adjust to such dorm staples as community baths and new room-mates. Dorms become the place where strangers meet, friendships form, and relationships are built. Keith Williams finds it easy to study in the comfortable environment of a dorm room rather than in the library. All photos by Mary Catherine Richardson.

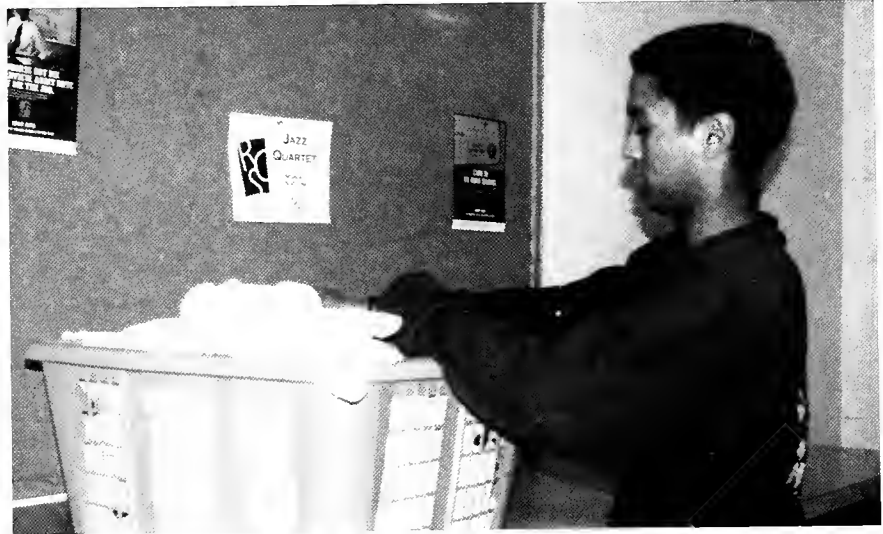

TAKE OUTS

On those rare occasions when the caf doesn't have what you are craving, no one hesitates to run to the nearest restaurant to grab a bite to eat. Freshmen Susan Wallace and Kelly O'Donnell find this to be true sooner than they had expected.

LAUNDRY

There were no complaints this year when the laundry rooms became coin-free, as students began washing on a regular basis instead of waiting until they were out of clothes. Sophomore Sunil Philip knows when the laundry rooms will be full and finds the perfect time to avoid the crowd.

ESCAPE

Stan McDuffie, a typical Hanson guy, tries to escape the stress of school by brushing up on his SEGA skills.

TABOO

Greg Vinson, Lindsey Tanner, Scott Matthews, Christopher Thomaskutty, and Melissa Boren stay in for the night to play a fun game of Taboo.

SCOOPS

In promotion of Alcohol Awareness Week, RHA sponsored a Mocktail Party. Reeves Woods, Claudine Post, and Anne Tyler Hamby scoop up some virgin margaritas.

HUGS

Senior Carrie Alexander proves that you are never too old for a hug from Santa.

KARAOKE

Entertaining the crowd at the Mocktail Party, Brian Erickson and James Bullard sing and dance to their favorite tunes.

HIGH FIVE

Santa confirms with Reeves Woods, RHA President of Margaret Daniel Dorm, that she has been a good girl this year by giving her a high five at the annual "Christmas on the Quad." This event is sponsored by RHA in hopes of bringing holiday cheer to the Hilltop.

All photos by Mary Catherine Richardson.

I NNOCENT FUN

RHA brings wholesome fun to students, with parties and games right on the dorm quad

THE HUNT

T Cullen Daniel RHA President Kerwin Lonzo hides an Easter egg under the napkins in the cafeteria. This year's hunt was held in the caf due to inclement weather.

CANDY MAN

C Jeremy Rogers and Veeral Majmudar put candy in Easter eggs for the RHA sponsored Easter Egg Hunt.

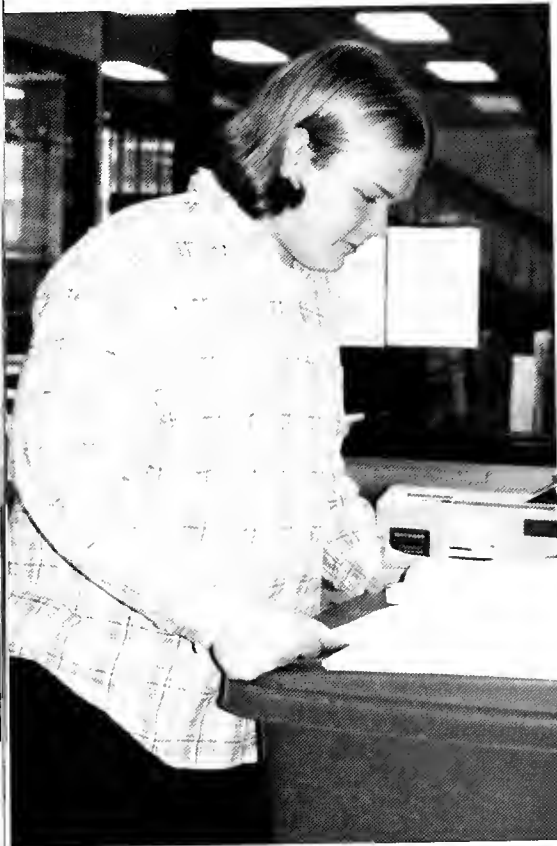

HO! HO! HO!

LAST MINUTE

Whether students stress or study, no one sleeps on the night before finals

XEROX
Tim Pitts gathers his sources before beginning his copying.

BIG D
Contemplating what to write next, English/Education major Damon Wilcox would rather be on the basketball court than in the library.

RESEARCH
Not only do students have to prepare for finals through studying, but many also have papers and presentations to research and develop. With books covering the desktop, Jim Davidson organizes his thoughts for a paper.

QUIET PLACE

Sometimes the library becomes a social gathering, with students wandering around searching for reasons to procrastinate, but finals week is an exception. Michael Huffaker, an Accounting major and baseball player, finds his quiet place for the week and "hits the books."

All photos by Marie Shunnarah.

MIDNIGHT
Brett Westwood, Wes Finner, and Adi Arora beat the crowd to the pancakes on the most popular night in the caf.

CHECKOUT
The library desk remains busy at this time of year, but juniors Clay Ryan and Lindsey Tanner seem to have the stress under control as they patiently await assistance.

HIGHLIGHTS
Finals week is a time to stop and ask yourself, "What have I learned this semester?" Melissa Cotney tries to answer this question by re-reading all the chapters she has studied.

A

LITTLE TRIP

Interim can take you across the street or around the world

GREECE

Christina Leles, Anne Hammond, and Peggy Balch enjoy the brisk breeze of the Aegean Sea.

INDIA

The service learning trip to Calcutta, India allows junior Clancy Johnson and senior Lauren Collier to work with the Sisters of Charity.

PIT STOP

The crew of the "Harvey Gamage" take a break from sailing one day to roam the island of Dominica. They hiked three hours through knee deep mud to reach a steamy boiling lake, and soothed tired muscles in the natural hot spring.

ROW YOUR BOAT

Whether you travel to serve others, to sightsee, or to work, each interim opportunity gives students the chance to live and learn in a different environment. The popular sailing interim teaches the "lines of a schooner," the keys to successful navigation, and the logic behind the sails. Sophomores, Katherine Penton and Rett Blake not only learn the meaning of teamwork and the significance of cooperation, but also how tough it is to be a sailor.

MONKEYING AROUND

On their BA 499 adventure to Australia, Ross Lagarde, Ryan Ferris, Chad Richey, and J.J. Jaxon stop for a snap shot with one of the many animals of the land down under.

ROCKEFELLER CENTER

The trip to view the "museums and more of Chicago and New York" allows students to visit world class museums, see renowned architecture, and relax in poetry-jazz cafes. In New York, the group visits the ice skating rink at Rockefeller Center.

A C 499

Accounting major Matt Rohling enjoys the quietness of the library as he spends countless hours completing his senior Interim project. Matt will join other BSC alumni at the accounting firm Ernst and Young in the fall.

F FRAGILE

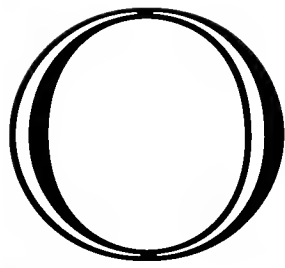

Cameron Boyd and Brad Davis carefully handle the intricate works at the Interim pottery exhibit.

ART

Although the campus is much more calm this month while students travel the country and the world, a few remain on the Hilltop to engage in a wide variety of classes. Chemistry Professor Dr. Strohl, because of his love for art, offers a pottery interim to interested students. Meredith Cooper and Emma Kimbrough take a look around at the bowls, vases, and other creations of talented students.

ONE MONTH

Exploring new ideas and activities in a familiar place

INTERNET

The Computer Science Interim class spends the month exploring the vast banks of information found on the internet.

SECOND GRADE

Student teaching is popular during Interim and throughout the year, as it gives students a chance to actively participate and prepare for the classroom environment. These children keep Jennifer Brill excited about each new day.

CAJUN

The red wagon on the Quad full of crawfish and gumbo serves Rachel Samples some of their specialty from the gulf.

ALL TOGETHER

You know it's homecoming week "Cajun Style" when the caf becomes full of beads, banners, and contests.

Homecoming week is a way to express school spirit and bring the campus together to celebrate our successful basketball team. Louisa Carlile is crowned the 1997 homecoming queen.

Louisa Carlile is crowned the 1997 homecoming queen.

Louisa is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi, a Resident Advisor in Bruno, and traveled with Service Learning to Calcutta, India this year.

QUEEN

After being crowned Homecoming Queen, Louisa Carlile gets cheers and applause from the crowd at Bill Battle. With flowers in hand, crown on head, and escort Brian Erickson by her side, Louisa humbly accepts the honor of being Queen.

SPICY

As they wait for the cajun band to begin, Joselyn Treadway, Summer Turvey, and Lanette Treadway are not afraid to get their hands dirty as they dig into their dinner.

CAJUN STYLE

All the excitement of Homecoming week leads up to the big basketball game

COURT
The 1997 Homecoming court consists of representatives voted on by each class. Freshmen Alison Graden and Tanory Neel, sophomores Anjali Xavier and Courtney Chastain, juniors Julie Barkemeyer and Shelly Moor, and senior Vanessa Woolery are very proud to represent their respective classes.

JUICES
George Fibbe can't seem to understand why Jim Corder loves to suck the juice out of the innocent sea creatures.

L EADERSHIP

SGA elections brings out the people who desire to be leaders on the Hilltop

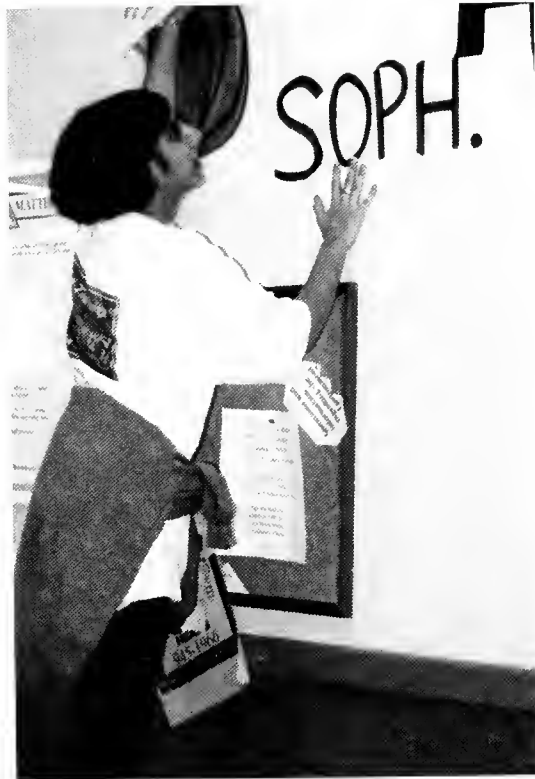

VOTE

The polling booth, crowded during break, is where students go to vote for their favorite candidates. David Precise performs one of his final duties as outgoing secretary as he helps Chelsea Hull with the election process.

WORK

Saira Faruqi finds that running for SGA Representative is hard work. Banners must be painted and hung, signs passed out, and verbal campaigning is always a plus.

INTENSE

SGA elections can be an intense two week process for some. The first week new officers must be elected then the second week is for representative elections.

The campus is covered with banners, flyers, and speeches of the candidates.

Jay Mitchell begins his campaigning early by trying to convince his friend William Burdette that he is the best man for the job. All photos by Mary

Catherine Richardson.

HEIGHT

Daniel Feig's height allows him to help candidates hang signs in the caf, a prime place for campaigning.

DECISIONS

Gene Murphy, after careful consideration, is ready to check the box for his candidate of choice.

TEAMWORK

When you run for an office your friends become a very important part of your campaign. Prachi Patil is thankful for all the work her friends Beth Thompson and Daniel Feig offer.

DEEP SEA
On the gulf coast of Destin, Florida, basketball team members Bo Coln, Justin Dankle, William Burdette, Mike Schwallie, and Christian Doucet show off their bountiful catch.

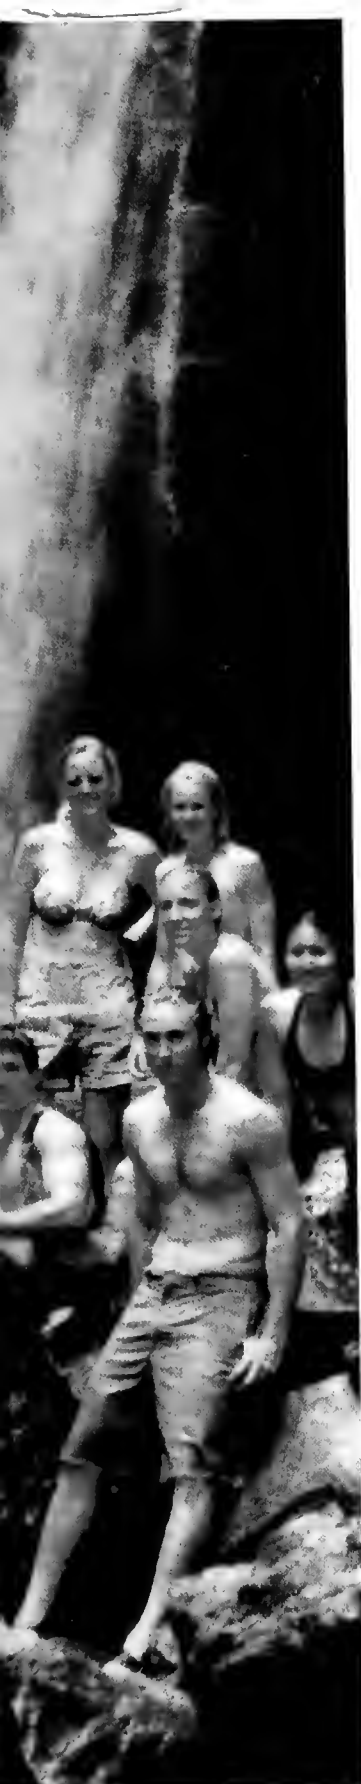

SOAK
Hiking through Tennessee, these students enjoy a few days away from the Hill-top.

COOCO
Having almost completed their freshman year, Tanory Neel, Carroll Lane Christopher, Courtney Bailey, and Juliet Hettinger spend their spring break together at Coco Beach.

TAKE A BREAK

Whether it's the beach or the mountains, everyone takes advantage of the time away

HAWAII
Spring break comes in the middle of the second semester, just when students need it most. Not many people get to spend the week in exotic places such as Hawaii, but the tennis team had such an opportunity. On the court, they defeated Hawaii Pacific. Off the court, the team enjoyed going snorkling, visiting Pearl Harbor, and hiking in Sacred Falls State Park. After almost three miles, they stop to swim in the swimming hole beneath a 70 foot waterfall.

OUTREACH
The Alternative Spring Break trip this year traveled to Johns Island, South Carolina, to paint houses, clean yards, and form relationships with the residents of the neighborhood. Maureen McAuliffe and Katherine Otto join the team and help in the community outreach project for a week.

RELAX
Taking his favorite book along, senior Tom Jeffries enjoys the perfect weather of the beach.

SANDY

G R E E K

“May we pursue that right - without self-righteousness. May we know unity - without conformity. May we grow in strength - without pride of self. May we, in our dealings with all people of the earth, ever speak the truth and serve justice. May the light of freedom, coming to all darkened lands, flame brightly - until the darkness is no more.”

GETTING TO KNOW PEOPLE

RUSHing around

HARD WORK

Fourteen greek women choose each year to disassociate with their respective chapters during Rush to be Rho Chi's. Welcoming each girl going through Rush and trying to ease their anxieties. This is a hard but rewarding role to play in the Rush process.

SONG AND DANCE

Skit night is a favorite of both the rushees and the chapters themselves. With pure energy and excitement, these girls of Pi Beta Phi try to show the great fun that comes with Greek life.

CONVERSATION

On the first night of rush, sophomore Kerri Hinman talks about what Chi Omega has meant to her.

The Way It Begins

WELCOME

Sophomore Laurie Bendall shares the excitement of bid day with two new pledges, Meredith Freeman from Cullman and Katie Brown from Decatur. Laurie hopes that each of them will enjoy the sisterhood of Chi Omega as much as she has this past year.

SENIOR BOND

Seniors feel many emotions on bid day- it is a time of excitement, as you see incoming members, but it is also a time of reflection, as you remember the last four years. Lisal Barnes, Leslie Richerson, and Kristen Flowers are proud to have been part of the Kappa Delta family.

CHEERS

With different greek letters roaring out of the sorority ampitheatre, the Alpha Chi Omega's enthusiastically wait for their new pledge class to run up the Simpson Hill.

THE PANDA HAT
ADII's Jenny Dollar and Ashley Hawkins are all smiles as they celebrate the beginning of a great senior year.

OLD FRIENDS
After a long summer apart, good friends Emily Wilson, Cory Brindza, and Alysonne Hatfield excitedly await their new Zeta pledges.

PRETTY IN PINK

Sisters of the Nu Delta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha gather for a group picture before they participate in the March of Dimes Walk America.

HOMECOMING
Past president Millie Harrell poses with her son after being selected as Adult Studies Homecoming Representative.

OUT ON THE TOWN
Sisters of Alpha Kappa Alpha enjoy spending time together, whether it means raising over $4,000 dollars for the March of Dimes, giving scholarships at Ensley High, or just having dinner.

Alpha Kappa Alpha

Sisters of the Nu Delta chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha are very active in the community. This year they participated in the March of Dimes Walk America and raised an incredible amount of money, over $4,000. They also adopted Ensley High School and gave three scholarships to outstanding seniors who will be attending college in the Fall. The sisters of AKA also participated in AKA DIMSCAMP which is a summer youth camp to challenge students to excel in math and science. At the Regional Conference, the Nu Delta chapter brought home the Ernestine Holloway Award for having the highest grade point average in the southeast region.

AKA PROUD

Demonstrating the chapter's commitment to service, Alpha Kappa Alpha sisters prepare for the March of Dimes Walk.

BID DAY BLISS

After receiving their bids from AOPi and running up the hill to 74 new friends, Reeves Woods, Tanory Neel, Courtney Bailey, Carroll Lane Christopher, and Juliet Hettinger are thrilled to be "pandas."

WELCOME HOME

On Bid Day, Jennifer Warren, Prerna Gala, and Tracy Brookings welcome Kim Vinson into the sisterhood of AOPi.

ALOHA SISTERS

Marsha Savage, Katie Moran, and Jenny Thomas put on flowers, straw hats, and leis for AOPi's Luau Mixer with KA

Alpha Omicron Pi

Alpha Omicron Pi's emphasize the community and the campus through our involvement in various activities. Some of our many activities include SVS, SGA, RHA, and PSSO. Girls can be found leading groups that will enhance others' intellectual, social, and spiritual ideals. Despite our busy schedules and commitments, AOPis always find time to support one another with the spirit of friendship and love.

Katie Moran, President

OLD FRIENDS

Juniors Katherine Wells and Sarah Merritt enjoy AOPi's annual Riverboat Fall Party.

SENIOR SISTERS

Carlye Shaw, Louisa Carlile, Ashley Hawkins, and Mimi Harmon have enjoyed many special memories and friendships that will last a lifetime.

Alpha Chi Omega

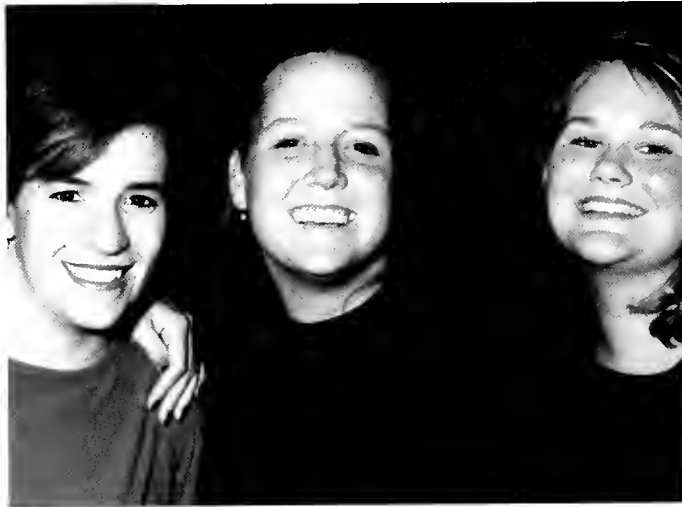

Alpha Chi Omega's open motto is 'Together let us seek the heights.' In every area of BSC life, Alpha Chi's strive together to show strong support. We can be found in SGA, Ivy League, the soccer team, and the theater, just to name a few. In the area of philanthropy, we support victims of domestic violence through the Alpha Chi Omega Foundation in our Casino event. And yet, our parties are second to none! We take pride in ourselves and in the individuality of our sisters - so that together we truly seek the heights.

DeAnn Miller, President

MESSY GIRLS
Chi O's pose at Derby Days, where they were "spotted" in first place.

NATURE GIRLS
Molly Pardue, Kerri Hinman, and Katherine Penton get back to nature.

Chi Omega

Chi Omega encourages academic excellence, friendship, and community involvement. I am very proud of the individual accomplishments of my sisters and the goals that we have reached together. From Easter Egg Hunts to babysitting at Bread and Roses, from a competitive spirit in intramurals to simply enjoying each other's company at a sisterhood retreat, Chi Omegas embody the ideals of leadership, service, and high personal standards.

Becky Hill, President

LINE IT UP

Chi Omega sisters have fun playing games at a sisterhood retreat.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Chi Os celebrate the birthday of their weekly Bible Study.

Kappa Delta

Kappa Deltas are involved in almost every academic and community service organization on campus. Our two large philanthropies, Kappa Delta Komeidy Klub in the Fall and Shamrock in the Spring, both benefit the Children's Hospital and the Exchange Club for the Prevention of Child Abuse. We have three big parties - Steak Fry Formal in the Fall, White Rose Formal in the Winter, and our last party of the year is Spring Party where you can finally ask your year long crush.

Ginger Davis, President

PARTY TIME

Courtney Chastain, Meredith Cooper, and Stephanie Strickland get dressed up for a party.

PI PHI PROUD

Pi Phi sisters love to have fun at their parties, and they show that their Spring Party is no exception.

BEAUX AND ARROWS

Pledge sisters Anna Johnston, Jennifer Sloan, and Amber Weaver take a zap at their Beaux and Arrows formal.

Pi Beta Phi

The diversity within Pi Beta Phi makes our sisterhood extremely special. Founded in 1867 at Monmouth College, Pi Phi was the first national fraternity for women. The Alabama Alpha Chapter here at BSC proudly upholds traditions. One such tradition is the Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts, Pi Beta Phi's national philanthropy. Held annually, Arrowspike volleyball tournament raises money for Arrowmont. Tradition keeps Pi Phi's very active on campus in the theatre, as Resident Advisors, in the dance department, Concert Choir, as well as SVS. The bonds of sisterhood and friendship culminate the uniqueness of Pi Beta Phi.

Shelley Moor, President

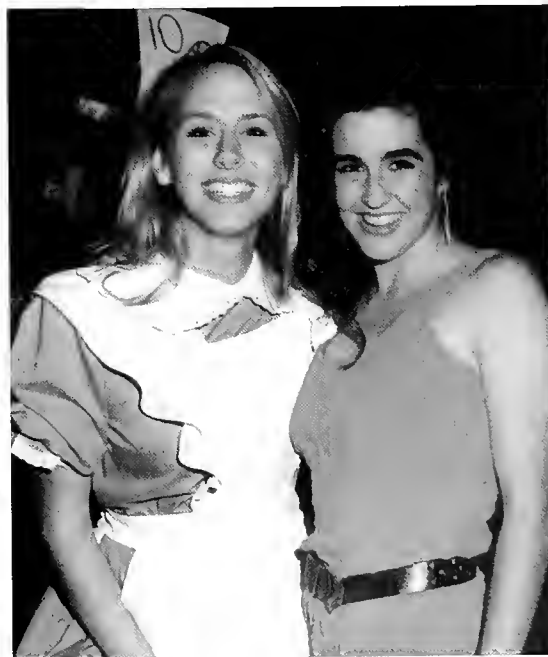

PLEDGE CLASS

Pi Phi's newest sisters get together at a mixer, one of the first introductions to the fraternities at BSC.

SPOOKS AND SPIRITS

Ruth Robinson and Nicole Nabors don new identities for Masquerade Ball.

Zeta Tau Alpha

Zeta Tau Alphas are involved in a number of campus activities including Homecoming Court, PSSO, Triangle Club, the Cheerleading Squad, Southern Stars, Academic Honoraries, Quest II, and SGA. Zetas are also active in community and philanthropic events such as Zeta's National Philanthropy, the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation. Every spring, Zeta sponsors Hoopfest, a three-on-three basketball tournament, benefiting the Foundation. The sisters of Zeta enjoy bonds of sisterhood at Fall Party, Crown Ball, and White Violet Formal.

Alysonne Hatfield, President

A CROWNING EVENT
Anjali Xavier and Rachel Ellis share a special moment at Zeta's semi-formal Crown Ball.

SISTER SUITEMATES
 Ashley Hethcox, Stephanie Black, and Julie Pate are not only Zeta sisters, but suitemates.

Party time

TYE DYE MANIA

Kappa Delta girls dress up in tye dye, teddy bears, and flower wreaths for their Decade of the Dead mixer with Kappa Alpha. The Decade of the Dead mixer does includes tunes by none other than The Grateful Dead.

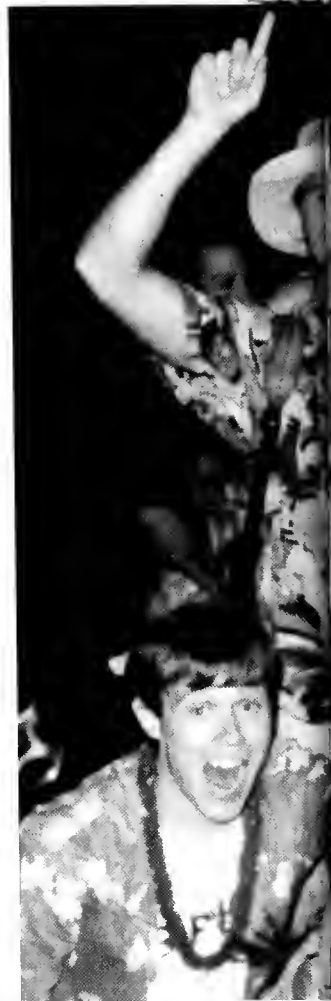

WANNA HAOE FUN

Whether it was leg warmers or jelly shoes, Ashley Wilkinson and Jenny Thomas dance to the popular 80's tunes at the ADII-Sigma Nu Mixer in the Fall.

HURRICANE TIME

Sigma Chi brothers put on their wildest floral shirts to get ready for their annual Hurricane mixer with Chi Omega. Preparation for the parties can be tough, but most people would agree that the hard work is worth it.

FLOWER POWER

The sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha are mellowed out for their Dazed and Confused mixer with Alpha Tau Omega. The annual mixer is a favorite among the two groups.

GOOD BUDDIES

Senior Jim Corder welcomes freshman Lowery Rhodes by sharing memories at KA fraternity parties.

THE NEW ROSE

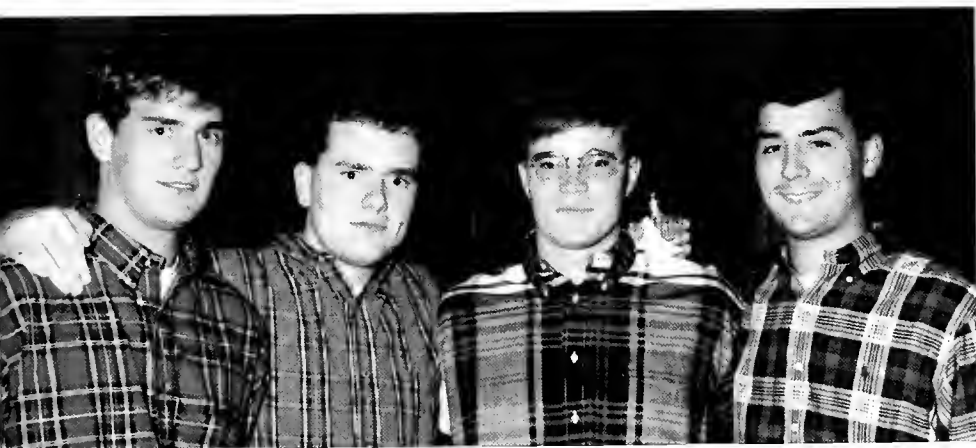

KAs surround their new sweetheart Melanie Lyerly, presenting her with roses at the Old South party in Memphis.

Kappa Alpha

The Phi Chapter of Kappa Alpha Order was awarded the George C. Marshall Award for overall chapter excellence. The award is given by KA national headquarters to recognize the top chapter in the nation. KA's campus involvement and support of their national philanthropy, the Muscular Dystrophy Association, enabled us to obtain this recognition. Brothers were active in SVS, sports, Phi Beta Kappa, and many other clubs. KA also had a full social calander with Highlander, Convivium, and Old South. Kappa Alpha Order continued to strive to emulate the ideals of the founders while remaining a positive influence on campus at BSC.

Greg Reynolds, President

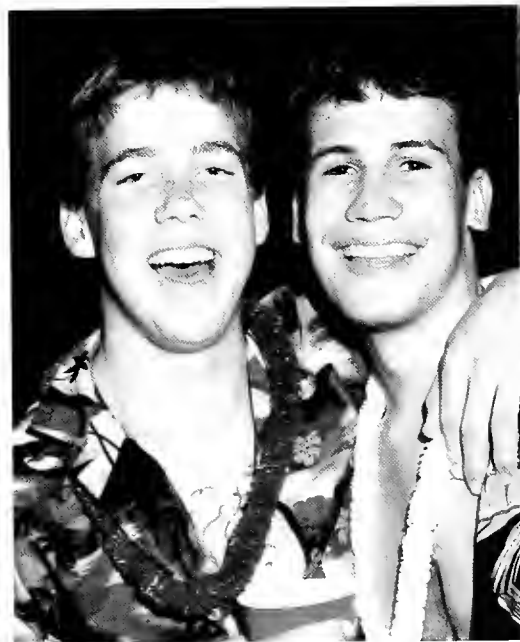

MAD ABOUT PLAID

Greg Reynolds, Bennett Hooks, and Fred Major pose with Kappa Alpha alumnus John Coley at sorority date party.

HAWAIIAN FEVER

Pledge brothers Jason Pease and Rhett Cooper enjoy the AOPi/KA Luau Mixer.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Sigma Alpha Epsilon was founded on the basis of intellectual and Christian ideals, the fraternity inspires its members to strive for wisdom, growth, and maturity. SAE's are seen in honoraries such as Phi Beta Kappa, Mortar Board, and ODK. They are also visible members of SGA, Honor Council, PSSO, and Housing Staff. The friendships and dedication to the chapter continue to maintain and improve the high standards synonymous with SAE.
Chris Ransom, President

PAT O'BRIEN'S
The Sigma Alpha Epsilon brothers gather to have their picture taken in front of Pat O'Brien's in the French Quarter in New Orleans. This trip allows the brothers to spend time together away from school and relax.

Sigma Chi

Since its inception at BSC in 1993, the Sigma Chi chapter has championed a standard of excellence. Sigma Chi places individuality above conformity. As a result, a diverse assortment of personalities, talents, and interests gather under brotherhood. By offering a wide range of opportunities, each brother grows mentally, physically, socially, and spiritually. Each year Sigma Chis are represented in a large number of academic honoraries and organizations. Brothers compete on BSC's soccer and tennis teams for national championships. Sigma Chi looks beyond its own interests with Derby Days, the largest Greek philanthropy on campus.

JERSEY DAYS

Ben McLaughlin and Ben Moore, Tommy Bush, Clay Ryan, Moncrief proudly display their Derby letters with Beth Thompson and Ashley Wilkenson.

Sigma Nu

Sigma Nu is a fraternity of men who bond together as a brotherhood to strive to live by the ideals of Love, Truth, and Honor. We have succeeded both locally and nationally. Nationally, our chapter, Lambda Theta, received the Rock Chapter Award, the highest level of excellence, for the third straight year. We were well represented in Honor Council, PSSO, SGA, SOS, Triangle Club, Residence Life, and many others. Our social events included our Bid Day Bash following Rush, Undertaker's Cotillion, White Rose Formal, and Shipwreck, which is celebrated in Panama City, Florida.

Theta Chi

Theta Chi is a group that is very involved in all areas of college life. Theta Chis are represented in almost every campus organization including Student Government Association, Order of Omega, IFC, PSSO, Quest II, and many others. We are well represented in many academic honoraries such as Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Eta Sigma. We participate in all intramural sports and many brothers compete on the school's athletic teams. Theta Chi also has an active social life having numerous parties throughout the year and ending with our well known Beach Formal.

Giving more

WORKING HARD FOR THE MONEY

Shelly Lewis and Clark McEwen busy themselves by separating Alpha Chi money for their upcoming Casino. Casino is a favorite among students at BSC, as participants can gamble with play money. The end result is real money for the Alpha Chi Omega National Foundation, benefiting Easter Seals.

ROCK OF AGES

For over fifty years, Alpha Omicron Pi has been hosting Mr. Hilltopper, a male beauty pageant with all sororities performing skits. Not only is Mr. Hilltopper enjoyable, but the money raised goes to the Arthritis Research Foundation.

DERBY DAYS

Sigma Chi Derby Days has quickly become a tradition at BSC with all sororities pitching in to help raise money for Children's Hospital. Each sorority writes and performs a skit for the children. Chi Omega chose 101 Dalmations as their theme and were spotted making children smile.

CHILD HELPERS

Meredith Miller, Ragan Dillon, and Katherine Bennett take some time for children. KD Comedy Klub and Shamrock both benefit the prevention of child abuse.

SPIKE IT TO ME

Pi Beta Phi holds the Arrowspike volleyball tournament in which both men and women compete for prizes, with the proceeds going to Pi Beta Phi's National Philanthropy, the Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts.

Gotta be Greek

DON'T DROP THAT EGG!

Daniel Miles, Matt Rohling, John Law Robinson, Mike Stowe, Richard Thayer, Sunil Philip, Chad Bradford, John Wilson, Rob Colvert, and Mathew Sapp compete in the Egg Toss, one of the ways to win points in Greek Week. This year's overall winners were Alpha Tau Omega and Pi Beta Phi, first place; Kappa Alpha and Zeta Tau Alpha, second place; and Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Alpha Omicron Pi, third place.

CHARIOTS OF FIRE

Chad Bradford and Emma Kimbrough, Jason Salmon and Maggie Jones, and Rob Colvert and Beth Luketic race against each other in the entertaining and somewhat dangerous Chariot Race.

THE YOLK'S ON YOU

Sally Bedgood and Miranda Critz participate in the Egg Toss, in which the object is to throw the egg to your partner. If the egg breaks, like Miranda's, you might get yolked.

RUN LIKE THE WIND
ATO/Pi Phi representatives James Yonfa and Beth Luketic charge toward the finish line in the Chariot Race. ATO and Pi Phi won the most events, making the pair Greek Week champions.

MAKING TRACKS

Fraternity guys kick up their heels and run through water during the Chariot Race. During Greek Week, each fraternity is paired with a sorority to participate in competition. Greek Week is held to promote the Greek System.

LOUNGING AROUND

Sitting out on the dorm quad and relaxing on a Saturday afternoon is a favorite of many students. With weeks filled with tests, papers, and deadlines, weekends are long-awaited on the Hilltop. Glad to have reached the weekend, Corie Janis, Ben Moncrief, and Scott Beatty enjoy the low-key atmosphere of the quad. Photo by Mary Catherine Richardson.

PEOPLE

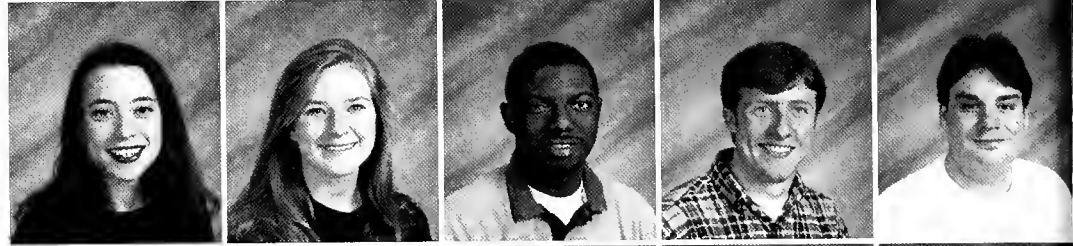

“One ship drives east and another drives west, with the selfsame winds that blow; it’s the set of sails and not the gales that tells them where to go. Like the winds of the sea are the winds of fate as we voyage along through life, it’s the set of the soul that decides its goal, and not the calm or the strife.”

Much Pomp and Unusual Circumstance

By Mary Beth Marklein
USA TODAY

The war in Bosnia kept Mirna Zekic's family from attending her high school graduation four years ago. So as she prepares for her commencement May 24, her greatest wish is that her mom be there to see it.

Zekic last saw her parent together in 1991, when she left Yugoslavia to spend her junior year in high school as a foreign exchange student in Sylacauga, AL. By the next spring, civil war had broken out in her native Bosnia-Herzegovina. Her parents and new-found friends in Alabama urged her to stay put, at least through the summer.

But conditions got worse. For a year, Zekic had no contact with her family because phone lines were cut off. She graduated from high school and enrolled in Birmingham-Southern College, where alumni and other sponsors donated funds to cover her expenses.

When communication resumed back home, Zekic learned what the war had done. "People have changed unbelievably," she says, recalling a letter from a childhood friend who now considers Zekic her enemy. Her parents separated. She spent months arranging for her brother Mladen to come to the USA under a student visa.

She also worked evenings while keeping up an almost perfect academic record (she got one A- in physics). She is now job hunting and will graduate first in her class, earning degrees in math, computer science, and business. Those who know her marvel at her stamina.

"To be with her, you would not have any sense that her life was in complete turmoil and limbo. She radiates a calm, quiet confidence," says American Government professor Ed LaMonte.

At the time of this article in USA Today Zekic still didn't know whether her mother would be able to attend her graduation. She says, "I think I would feel more pride in everything just knowing that my mom was there." Oprah Winfrey fulfilled her dream by reuniting the mother with Mirna on her daytime talk show.

Arm
In Arm

Bosnia native Mirna Zekic thought that Oprah Winfrey wanted to talk to her about the odds she overcame to leave her war-torn country and study in America. That was only part of the story.

Oprah Winfrey reunited Mirna with her mother after six years. Mirna, her mother Eleonora, and her brother Mladen embrace on the set of the Oprah Winfrey Show in an episode which aired May 27, 1996.

AM PACKED

Cars stack up in the loading zone dock outside the Goodwin orm. With the new additions and the new two way road, parking has come almost obsolete forcing students to park anywhere possible.

To Park or Not to Park

What do you think about the lack of parking?

“We don’t have enough spaces. I drive several times before I end up parking out in the boonies.”

SPORTS

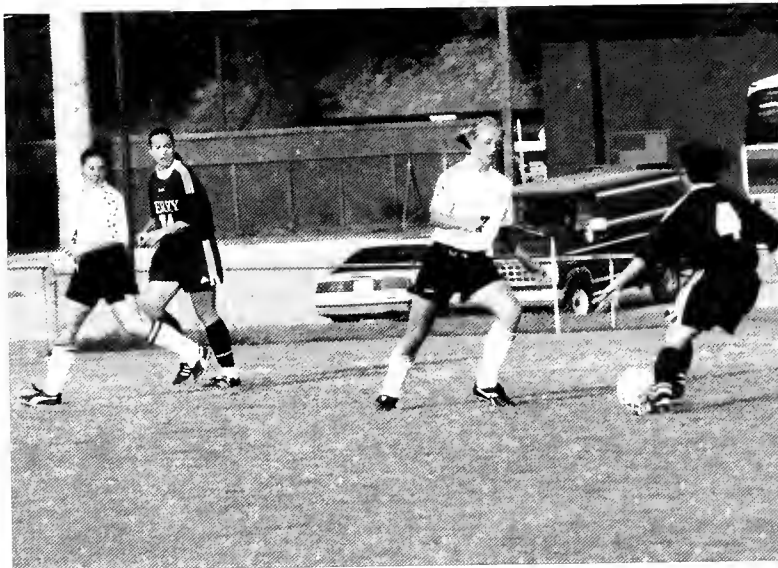

“To laugh often and much, To win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children, to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends, to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others, to leave the world a bit better, to know even one life has breathed easier because you lived. This is to have succeeded.”

Sophomore SEASON

GREAT SAVE

Freshman goalie Allison Popp dives to stop a shot on goal. Popp was a great asset this year as the team recorded eight shutouts. She was named to the All TranSouth Conference Team, as well as the All-Tournament Team for the TranSouth Conference.

DEFENSE

Sophomore Missy Hardman steps in front of a Berry opponent dribbling the ball as Maureen McAuliffe looks on. Hardman, a transfer from Rutgers, had two assists for the season.

HEADER

Sophomore forward Jen Parker leaps in the air to head a ball away from a Covenant College player. On the season, Parker had three goals, two of which came against Brenau University in a game which the Panthers won 14-0. The women's soccer team finished the season with a record of 9-10-1. The Panthers lost to top-ranked Berry College in the TranSouth Conference finals to end their sophomore season.

ROCKET

Sophomore defender and captain Maureen McAuliffe prepares to launch the soccer ball upfield. McAuliffe provided great defense this season and was named to the All TranSouth Conference Team.

TOP SCORER

Freshman defender Diane Bassett aims to kick the ball past a Berry player. Bassett's strong leg produced fifteen goals, which led the team, for the Panthers during the 1996 season.

Getting Their KICKS

MAN ON

Junior defender Michele Shannon fights an opponent for the soccer ball. Shannon aided the team during the season with tough defense. Without the dedication and hard work of the team, the season would not have been successful.

The team played tough, even through injury. Senior captain Sarah Braaten and freshman Andrea Houlditch both missed the end of the season with injuries. All photos by Chris Hershey and Michael Stine.

HUSTLE

Freshman forward Kirsten Schultz runs past an opponent to get possession of the ball. Schultz provided three goals and seven assists for the team during the season.

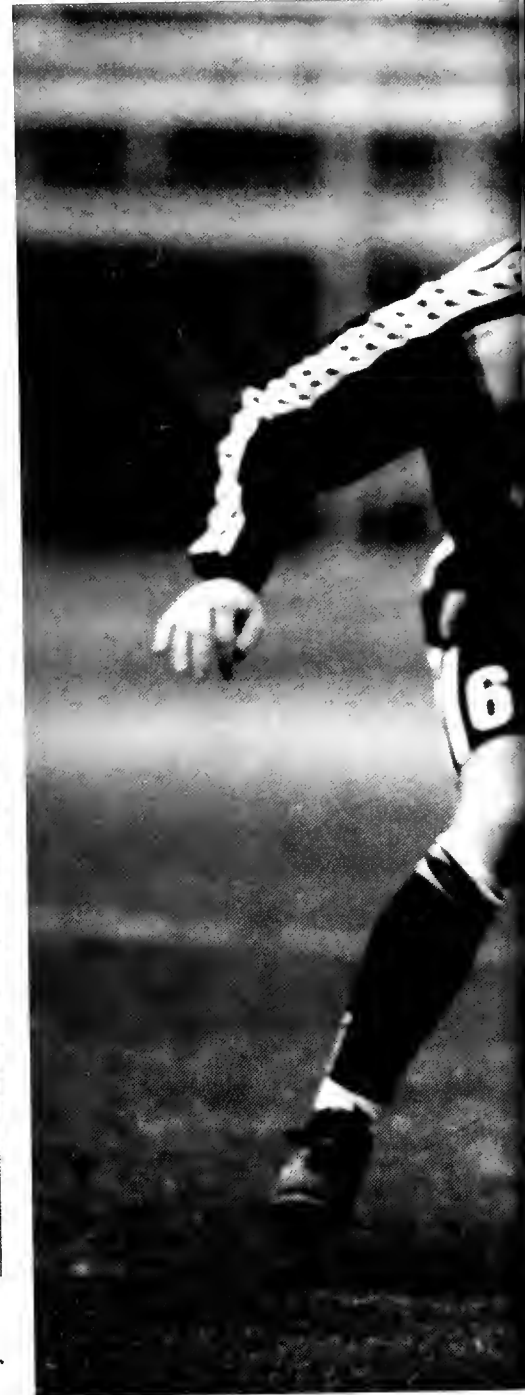

AGGRESSIVE

Senior midfielder Jens Holtkamp cuts off a Rockhurst College opponent to get to the ball. Holtkamp produced thirteen goals this season to make his career goal total nineteen. He also assisted on eleven goals during the 1996 season.

TACKLED

Senior striker Mike Bryson is slide tackled by an opponent as his teammate, senior midfielder Paul Welch, takes possession of the ball.

For TOP

FOCUS
Senior defender Ryan Ferris focuses on the soccer ball and prepares to make an attempt to steal the ball from his opponent. The Panthers had an incredible 1996 season. The players' hard work, dedication, and athletic talent definitely paid off as the team finished as runner-up in the NAIA National Tournament held at Legion Field in Birmingham over Thanksgiving weekend. All photos by Chris Hershey.

WINNING
Members of the BSC soccer team celebrate after securing a National Tournament win. The Panthers beat Houghton College, Simon Frazer University, and Rockhurst College in the tourney.

KICK IT

Senior striker Mike Bryson sends the ball upfield to a teammate.

SPEED

Senior midfielder Paul Welch uses his speed to dribble past opponents.

HEADS UP

Senior midfielder Keidane McAlpine heads a ball upfield towards a teammate. For his BSC career, McAlpine produced eleven goals.

OVER THE TOP

Junior midfielder Sean McBride leaps over an opponent to head the soccer ball away. McBride started in all twenty-five of the Panthers' games this season. A newcomer to the team, McBride added eight goals and seven assists.

FOLLOW-THROUGH

Senior Kristen Flowers follows through on a forehand shot. Flowers has contributed a great deal to the team in her four years here.

BACKHAND

Junior Sissy McClung concentrates as she prepares to return a backhand shot cross-court.

McClung not only serves the women's team as a player, but also as a leader and captain. The women's tennis team posted a regular season record of 18-4 and went on to place second in the sectional tournament. With strong singles and doubles play, the team should make a strong showing at the National NAIA Tennis Tournament in Tulsa. All Panther basketball coach Duane Rebol questions an official's call as his team looks on during a time-out.

LET'S GO

Seniors William Burdette and Justin Dankel express their excitement over the pace of the game as the team comes to the bench for a time-out.

GENIUS

Coach Duane Reboul gives guard Mike Schwallie a high-five. Coach Reboul's coaching expertise has produced not only winning seasons year after year, but also two national championships. The season ended with Coach Reboul's decision to turn down coaching offers from other colleges to remain on the Hilltop. Schwallie, a senior, led the Panthers in both steals and assists in his senior season. All photos compliments of Chris Hershey.

UNITY The Panthers huddle, declaring they are number 1 before the start of a National Tournament game.

FOCUS Senior guard Christian Doucet wards off a defender at the top of the key.

Shooting

INTENSE Ken Richards shoots over a Master's College defender. Richards contributed consistent shooting and rebounding to this year's Panther squad. Freshman Clint Spears, who proved his ability to shoot the ball from long-range, prepares to pass the ball.

Swing,

ON DECK

Sophomore catcher Brock Lowell waits on deck for his time to bat. Lowell made a lasting impression this season by hitting two homeruns in the TranSouth tournament.

EASY OUT
Senior third baseman Brent Whitlock zips the ball across the diamond to throw the runner out at first as senior shortstop Billy Romans looks on. Both Whitlock and Romans contributed a great deal to the team this season. Whitlock provided strong defensive and offensive, while Romans led the entire TranSouth Conference in RBIs, with 75. All photos by Mary Catherine Richardson.

STRIKE ONE

Senior catcher Andy Roberts takes a homerun swing. Roberts batted .259 in 1996.

DUGOUT Juniors David Stanley, Adam Moseley, and Jay Chittam, freshman John Stewart Jackson, and sophomores Brock Lowell and Paul Corgill watch the game from the dugout, preparing to take the outfield.

RESPECT

The baseball players and coaches pay respect to their country as the National Anthem is played before they take the field.

FIRST BASE

Junior transfer Brian Autry throws a ball to home plate before the batter comes to the plate. Autry led the TranSouth Conference with 15 homeruns during the regular season.

BASE HIT
Sophomore outfielder Chad Post connects for a base hit. During the regular season, Post broke the sixteen-year Birmingham-Southern record for runs in a single season with 69. The old record of 67 runs was set by Jimmy Roberts in 1981. Post also helped to lead the team through the first ever TranSouth Conference Baseball Tournament, which was hosted by BSC. The SGA supported the team by providing free tickets to students and staff. All photos

STRIKE 'EM OUT

Junior left-handed pitcher Jay Chittam throws a strike. A newcomer to the team, Chittam added to the team's solid pitching staff.

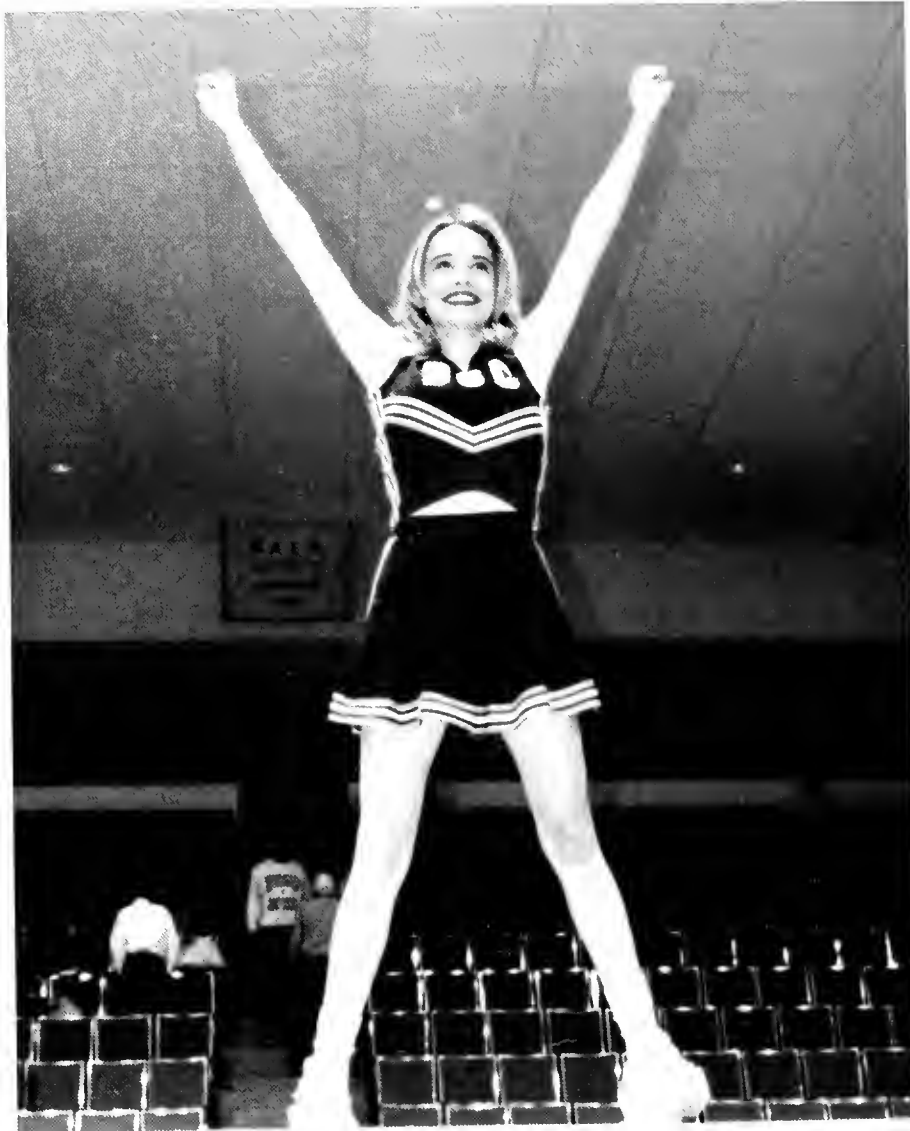

Maintenance

Senior Michael Huffaker and freshman Ryan Rigsby hose down the infield.

CHEER

Junior Rachel Ellis is hoisted into the air by fellow cheerleaders sophomore Ashley Legg, sophomore Hootie Hitson, and junior Mary Catherine Richardson. The cheerleaders are instrumental in providing support for the Panther basketball team. They spend a great deal of time learning cheers that will get the crowd involved in the game and inspire the players. Their job takes practice, enthusiasm, dedication, and most of all, school spirit.

IF
Sophomores Evelyn Frazier and Rachel Samples show off their funky dance moves to Janet Jackson's "If." The dance to "If" was choreographed by Neala Lane, the captain of the Southern Stars. It was the most popular dance routine performed by the Southern Stars during the 1996-1997 season. It involved intricate steps and arm movements that the girls spent hours perfecting.
All photos by Mary Catherine Richardson.

LEAN ON ME

The Southern Stars use each other for support as they entertain the crowd with "If." The Southern Stars performed seven different routines during the season, including a special dance to a mix of upbeat songs for Homecoming 1997.

The Cast and Crew

After all of the long hours spent in rehearsal together, the cast and crew begin to act like one big happy family. At the conclusion of the show, the crew gathers for a group picture.

Imagine
El Gallo, played by Gabe Belyeu, speaks to the boy, James Keith, of the many untold adventures in the outside world.

Funny Boys
Hilarious antics and slapstick comedy are everyday behavior for the two fathers, played by Kristoffer Lowe and Dane Peterson. The pair's instinctive acting keeps the audience in non-stop laughter.

Argue
Devious plans are on El Gallo's mind as he breaks apart the two arguing fathers.

Queen of the Night

With high stakes and big rewards, seven beautiful women compete for the title of Miss Birmingham-Southern College

Winner

Newly crowned Miss BSC, Ashley Halfman rejoices with mother Jeanne and grandmother Bea Baum immediately following the ceremonies. Support of family and friends is the backbone to the Miss America program.

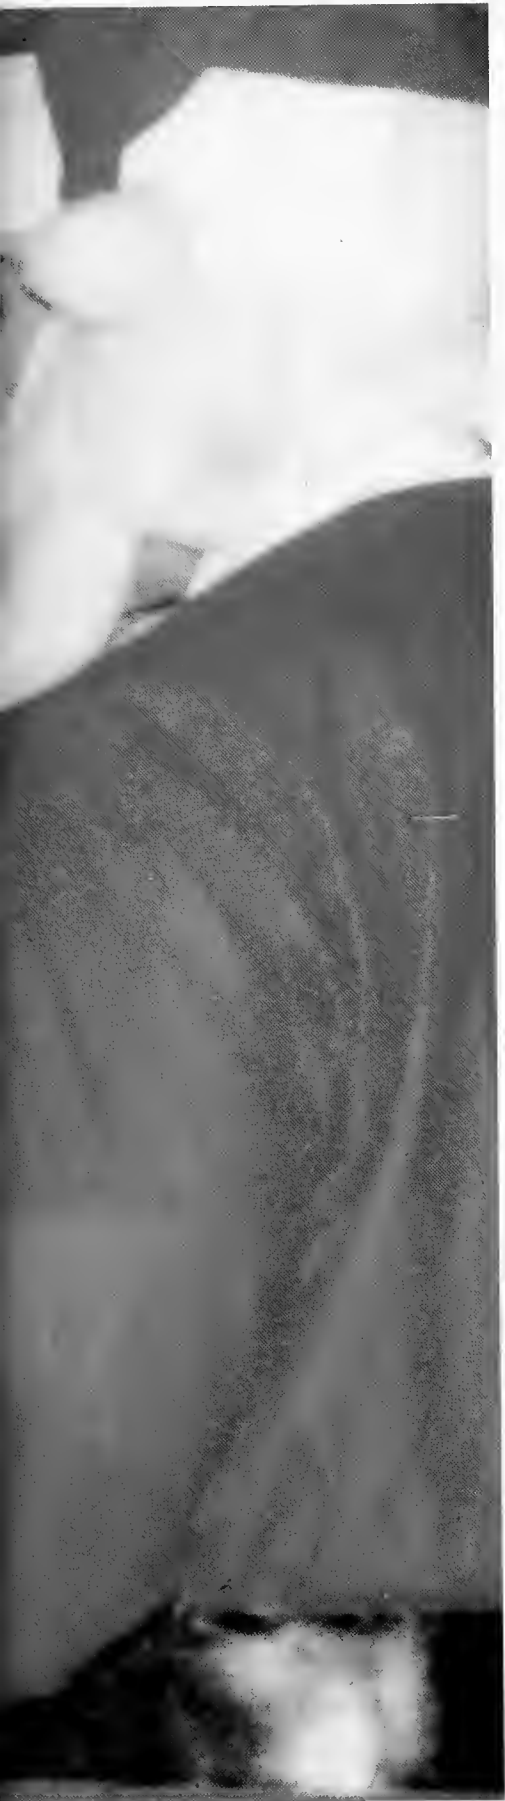

Family

After the ceremonies, contestant Erica Sutton stands proudly with her family. Several of Erica's relatives made the trip to Birmingham-Southern to support her in her quest for the prestigious title.

ORGANIZATIONS

“Life isn’t a destination—it’s a journey. We all come upon unexpected curves and turning points, hilltops and valleys. Everything that happens to us shapes who we are becoming. And in the adventure of each day, we discover the best in ourselves.”

GLITTERS and MARKERS

Joanna Leong and Natalie Bevill help two little fairies decorate a Halloween bag at the Fall Festival. The Fall Festival was coordinated by Beth Rogers and brought many young children to campus for a night of Halloween games and fun.

SNOW CONES

Leslie Hand, Mary Gwin Stainton, and Hallie Leavell make snow cones for students to enjoy during the Southern Comfort Carnival. Panhellenic provides the snow cones every year during the carnival.

STUDY BREAK

Freshmen Emma Kimbrough and Anna Tillman help themselves to some fruit as they take a study break that was sponsored by Panhellenic during spring exams.

EXAM CRAZY
 Becky Bone shows that she definitely needed the study break sponsored by Panhellenic during spring exams. With carrots in her ears, grapes in her nose, and a piece of lemon in her mouth, Bone provides some needed comic relief at the party. Panhellenic sponsored many events this year, the biggest of all being the Fall Festival. The Fall Festival brought young children from surrounding neighborhoods to campus on Halloween night for fun, food, and fright.

DANCE A JIG

In his laid back manner, Anil Mujumdar celebrates that his reign as President is over by dancing a jig for the SGA Legislature.

SERVICE

SGA Treasurer Jason Salmon has fun with some children at the Birmingham Zoo. SGA not only worked to improve BSC's campus, but also helped the community. The 1996-1997 SGA achieved many accomplishments during the year. They brought a dry cleaning service to the campus, provided shuttle transportation between the college and Southside, and placed rocking chairs on the library plaza, among other things. The SGA works hard to make sure that every penny of the student activity fee is spent in the best interest of the students. It provides many services that every student can take advantage of. //

Jeremy Rogers, a Quest II member, snits up to test the Velero obstacle course. Quest II serves as the programming board for the campus. Board members are chosen each spring and help decide which bands will perform for Entertainment Fest and Southern Comfort. Also, during Southern Comfort, Quest II provides a carnival for the students to enjoy. Members of the programming board also work to help the bands set up and help check IDs as students enter the tent. Entertainment Fest and Southern Comfort are by far the largest responsibilities of Quest II. However, Quest II also provides other entertaining events, such as comedic hypnotists. III photos

Just as these students leave Harbert, in many different directions and stages of the journey, students will leave Birmingham-Southern in quite the same fashion- each student pointed in different directions and at different stages in their personal journey. Photo by Mary Catherine Richardson.

CLOSING

“I must have been distracted when I left my home. Because left or right I am sure I went. (I wonder which it was!) Anyway, I never veered; I walked in that direction, utterly absorbed it seemed, in quiet introspection. For no reason I can think of, I wandered far astray. And that is how I got to where I find myself today.”

Each year Birmingham-Southern College brings a new group of students to the Hilltop. From Enterprise, AL to Atlanta, GA, and all the way to Tokyo, Japan, this diverse group of students brings with them not only their own backgrounds and experiences but also their own ideas, goals, expectations, and dreams. Although each student is unique, they quickly mold into one as they share the common bond of life at Southern. For four years this group grows together and most importantly changes together, learning so much about each other as well as themselves.

This senior class is no different. They came together in August four years ago not having any idea what was ahead. This group did not realize that they were a part of a once in a lifetime experience. There are indeed aspects of college life that can be exchanged, but the memories and the friendships are irreplaceable. This common time on the Hilltop should be cherished forever. In May, this class will stop and say goodbye to Birmingham-Southern. They will take with them the common memories and will leave POINTED IN ALL DIRECTIONS.
